BACKGROUND:

Currently a Junior in the Graphic Design program at the Massachusetts College of Art and Design in Boston. Have interned, freelanced, and worked for a firm as a graphic designer out of high school.

EXPERIENCE:

OKAY!! OKAY!!

Burlington, VT

Summer 2010 ñ

Spring 2012

Starting as a intern in high school, worked my way to hold a paid graphic designer position working with an diverse array of clients. The firm became a second home, working on branding and design work for Soundtoys™, Loft 89, BodyArmor™, BananaBeat Records and Burton Snowboards to international original artwork for Rob Dyrdek's musical venture Bobby Light, as well as original artwork for Cisco Adler, Shwayze, Chanel West Coast, and Lil John.

BURTON SNOWBOARDS

Burlington, VT

Summer 2011

With the desire to understand branding and brand management from the perspective of a successful international company, I became a Brand Ambassador for Burton Snowboards. This job included promoting events, on site help, and execution of said events, and representing and upholding the Burton image while handing out stickers, event invites, and other promotional items.

VERMONT MAMMOGRAM RESEARCH

Burlington, VT

Summer 2007 ñ

Spring 2012

Responsible for basic administrative support for Vermont breast cancer research project. Duties included data entry and validation using TeleForm software, scanning confidential medical forms, organizing and filing documents, and delivered documents to various departments. Installed operating systems on computers and ran diagnostics on new digital form to insure validate functionality of programs.
